

NCAA II TRYOUTS

NCAA II programs are allowed to hold one practice or tryout on its campus as long as the student-athlete is a high-school senior who is enrolled in a term other than the term in which the traditional season in the sport occurs. The college/university may conduct a medical examination of the student-athlete, and the tryout may include tests to evaluate the student-athlete's strength, speed, agility and sport skills.